DISSATISFIED DEMOCRATS

A Growing Feeling that it is Time for a Re-turn to Republican Rule, horromondence of the Intelligencer. Ran Sulphur Springs, W. Va., Jan. 15.

REB SUPERIES PRINGS, W. VA., Jan. 15.

—I see in your weekly issue that Mr.

Johnson, of the Monroe county Border

Watchman, has been interviewed at Washington, and he says there is much feeling against Congressman Snyder and that it is growing; and, also, a very strong feeling against Senator Camden. Mr. Johnson is correct. There is and has been a strong feeling against Snyder among the Bourbon portion of the Democrats ever since the Morrison horizontal tariff bill was disposed of. The Bourbon Democrats of this corner of the State have not forgotten anything, and it does appear that they will never learn anything. They adhere to the time-honored principles of the Democratic party, State sovereignty, free trade, anti-internal improvement, free whisky and boodle. The faults they find in Snyder and Camden seem to me to be their only redeeming principles, if they have any politically. The Bourbona here look upon them as being in favor, to some extent at least, to a protectivo tariff which is contrary to sound Bourbon Democracy.

This is part of the grievance, but the principal one is that the claims of the Bourbons of the Third Congressional District have been overlooked. Few any politically. The Bourbons here look upon them as being in favor, to some extent at least, to a protective tariff which is contrary to sound Bourbon Democracy. This is part of the grievance, but the principal one is that the claims of the Bourbons of the Third Congressional District have been overlooked. Few of the fat places have been awarded to the great nuwashed of the strongest Democratic District in the State. This is where the shoe pinches. My notion is that the Democracy are making more fusabout who shall be the Senator than necessary. If there is anything in the signs of the times they will not be called upon to select the next United States Senator. Honest Democrats are having their eyes opened, and it is not Jim Mason's Charlescown free trade Bourbon sheet that is giving sight to the blind, but experience, and experience, hard times, scarcity of money, low prices for beef, no price for sheep and a general stagnation in business And then a few have learned the folly of aking gold and buying silver with it, and think that it is costing them too much, and many of them swear they will not vote the Democratic ticket again. They are noutring what has become of the school money, and how come this State to be ball amillion dollars in debt with the burthen it assess we pay?

In fact, there seems to be some disposi-

In fact, there seems to be some disposi-tion among a few honest Democrats to in-quire into the causes of all the ills we are suffering. With a few such rapers as the New York Tribune and the Wheeling In-TRILIGENCES circulated among those of the Democratic party who are looking after the cause of all our trouble, the Democratic party would not be called upon to select the next United States Sen-ator. Surfer is neving his away for the apon to select the next United States Senator. Snyder is paving his way for the comination to succeed binself. He had Lewis Calloway removed at Peteratorn to give place to Henry Clark-for postmisster.
This made him solid with the saltpeter brigade, but not so solid with Thomas Appling and his kinsfolk, the Watts family.
But he soon had that trouble settled. A working Democrat of the Watts family had been twice pominated by the Democracy for clerk, and although this is a working Democrat or the Watta lamily had been twice pominated by the Democratey for clerk, and although this is a Democratic county, or has been, "Uncle" Dick Watts was snowed under to the time of one thousand and sixteen votes, which was hard on "Uncle" Dick, who, by the way, deserved better treatment. Snyder came to the rescue and removed an old gentleman, who had made an excellent postmaster, and put "Uncle Dick" in. This was a ten strike, for Snyder appears of the Watts family and silenced all the nephews and cousins. How such manipulation suits the voters of the county you will learn later. What Snyder is after is the nomination, which in this district has been equivalent to election, and and with the saltpeter brigade of this county, and Col. J. M. Ilywan, who has another son or two he wants educated at the expense of the Government he tried to destroy, and the influence of the Watts to destroy, and the influence of the Wat's samily, I think Snyder is solid in this

As for the United States Senatorship, that matter is to be settled later, and if West Virginia has to have a Demo-crat let us see to it that he belongs to the Randall wing of the party.

Shoeting Horses.

S. M. N., Olive, W. Va.,—Please answer the following questions:

First, Is there any cure for what is generally called hoof bound horses? Please tell the cause and care, If any?

Second, How much should be pared off of a horse's hoof and what part should receive the most paring:

of a horse's noot and what part should receive the most paring?

Third, Does it injure a colt's hoof to shoel t when one year old; or, how old should he be before shoeing to insure a good shoof?

thing else wrong with her. She does not give much milk and it looks blue. I would like to know what is wrong with her, and what I can do for her.

Answare—The disease is in all probability tuberculosis. Do not use the milk in any form, and it is not advisable to feed it either to the calf or pigs. The proper treatment would be the free use of tonics, both vegetable and mineral, good diet and warm quarters. From your description I do not think she will repay you for treatment.

Diseased Teeth. F. M., SMITHIFILD, O.,—I have a good eight-year old horse that has had something the matter with his mouth for sometime. He holds it to one side when esting, and some time will est all right and all at once start as if some one had hit him. I have tried to look in his mouth but can not. What do you think is the matter, and what can be done for the horse.

ANSWER.—From the symptoms described I would say a diseased tooth, which should be removed, or, it may be a sharp one which requires dressing down. In either case have a Veterinary Surgeon examine his meuth and he will find the cause.

Pittsburgh Stockman.
The many meetings of organized stock

that, in the better understanding which is obtained concerning these things, they will receive more respectful attention. The Burcau of Animal Industry has been a target for the keenest criticism, and its good points as well as its weakness may receive, as they should, most thorough liscussion. The more the object is ventiated, the more good will likely ensue to stock-raisers, none of whom should be stock-raisers, none of whom should be backward in using voice and influence in favor of ample and well digested laws for the special protection of their interests.

HORSE NOTES.

Quality first-other points afterwards. A Colorado breeder lately refused $50 s head for 100 young mules just being weaned from their mothers.

Let the first gait into which your colt is trained be a brisk walk—the best and most important gait he will ever learn.

It is alleged that the nit of a bot may be hatched in a short time by placing it in the palm of the hand and breathing stead-ily upon it. Don't allow a horse which has been heated with driving to stand hitched even five minutes in these raw January days without a cover.

A fine horseman who is also a poultry man says that his best driving animal con-sumes daily exactly as much grain as a cock and forty hens.

cock and forty hens.

The escaping ammonia from the manure, unless stables are kept clean and pure, often causes sore eyes and lung troubles in the animals sheltered in them.

Every man who grows a horse for market should know that the persistent and thorough use of the brush and curry-comb is a powerful help toward making money. To raise horses which can make 2:30 time is not within the reach of most farmers. But something better is within their reach—to raise horses worth $230 each. Do you see it? If the rage for dispensing with horse shoes is ever to obtain in this country it will be after the average condition of country roads is vastly improved, and the material used in the construction of city streets is radically changed. Many farmers do not keep their stables as clean as they should, for the comfort and health of their equine stock. The stables should be cleaned out at least twice stables should be cleaned out at least twice a day—morning and evening, and in the evening each stall should be carefully bedded with clean rye straw. Farmers should keep good horses, and a good horse should always be well taken pare of and be given a clean and comfortable bed on which to allow. which to sleep.

Fourth, What is the best remedy for cracked hoofs that will not hold shoes?

Fifth, How long should a shoe remain on?

Answar, first—Contraction of the hoof wall takes place whenever the bone, lignests, lamine or cartilages receive an injury. A very common cause is allowing the shoe to remain on so long that the hoof can not expand, this causes a distense of the lamine. Remove the cause and the effect will cease.

Second—This depends upon the condition of the hoof at the time, but a good thing to judge from is in cutting your finger mails.

Third—Yes. Shoe a colt when he is matured, and keep the hoof as you find:
